

ONE:ONE
FLOWER FARMER
CLASS

WITH LISEL OF BELLE BOUQUETS

Meet Lisel

The florist behind Belle Bouquets

Hello! I am Lisel, (pronounced Lee-sill) the florist behind Belle Bouquets and I am so glad that you have reached out!

I live in the gorgeous South East Queensland, Australia, on our family farm of 160 acres with my husband Mark and our four beautiful children, where we raise cattle, a few sheep and chickens, run a mobile and on farm mechanic business and in a plot just under 2 acres I grow flowers!

Flowers, or anything botanical really, are my biggest inspiration, that curved or wonky stem grown in nature is what I live for! You will often hear me squeal in delight when I am picking flowers and there is something gorgeous dancing at the end of a elongated stem, I just know that it is going to create something that is natural and whimsical in my arrangement, a style that I love when it comes to flowers.

A few fun facts

- A good book, chocolate ice cream and a lamb roast are part of my relaxing moments
- We homeschool our four children, a lifestyle and moral choice that enables me to work with Belle Bouquets while being a Mum and wife first.
- That olive skin is all natural, thanks to my Dad who is from Chile. I am a first generation Australian as both my parents migrated here in the 1960s, my Mum is from the UK.

YOUR OWN PRIVATE CLASS

Lisel loves to create a encouraging and stimulating experience with her workshops and you will have all of this to yourself!

There will be an abundance of seasonal flowers, local botanics, full reign of all Belle Bouquets props and styling pieces, and your own private class in the heart of the High Country Hamlets.

These classes are a fun and unique experience to learn new techniques, build your portfolio and refine your creative process. You'll learn in an intimate setting, with plenty of time to test ideas and discuss your design and business questions.

By the end you will be feeling creatively refreshed and inspired and ready to take on your goals and dreams for your own farmer florist journey.

HOW THE DAY WILL RUN

AMy Philip Photography

Belle Bouquets

Lisel will reach out via email prior to your class to discuss your goals and the finer details.

Classes begin mid-morning (exact time will be arranged at least 2 weeks prior but usually around 10am).

You'll spend the morning down at the flower patch learning the farming side of Belle Bouquets and picking a bucket of blooms to play. After a small gourmet lunch in Lisel's old dairy studio, we will create a bouquet with what you picked in the morning and discuss all your questions. To finish the day with a mini styling session of your finished designs, where Lisel will give you tips on how to photograph your work.

During the class, Lisel will take photographs and videos of your work and yourself to use on your website and socials. You'll receive a sneak peek of a few photos on the day and than any other photos will be emailed within 4 weeks.

Things to Note

- This is an investment in YOU. An opportunity to grow in skills and confidence to offer your clients the creativity and work you have living inside you! It is also an investment in professional images for your social media and business growth.
- Lisel does not use dried flowers in her 1:1 classes. All flowers are fresh, seasonal and locally or Australian grown.
- There are a variety of accommodation options available 10 mins away in the town of Crows Nest if required.
- Belle Bouquets studio is situated on a country dirt road and care will need to be taken when traveling
- Due to the limited availability of these classes, along with being a small business with a team to support, we appreciate your understanding that all classes are non refundable. Please read the full T&C's on the final page of this document BEFORE booking.
